malleable (adj.), ductile (adj.), flexible (adj.), pliable (adj.), moldable (adj.), foldable (adj.), soft (adj.), docile (adj.), mild (adj.)...

Also translatable as “the art of adapting”: to the street, to the urban space, to the ever-changing audience and to the stumbling blocks of life, as the clown teaches us. Peppino, entertainer with a lively and captivating verve, tackles everything with a light-hearted spirit, capable of responding to the unexpected with improvisation and creativity.

An eclectic figure whose body speaks alternating the art of mime and clown, with a marked verbal comedy.

Malleabile is a show that mixes Physical Theatre and Circus Arts (eccentric juggling, free standing ladder, balancing) in a continuous empathic dialogue with the audience, looking for a universal language that everyone can understand.
